Genres : Alternative Pop, Jazz, Soul, Rock

ELÆNA is like a magic potion. Concocted from their individual creativity, Natan Niddam, Yoann Maeder, and Damien Sigrand offer a unique style charged with power and emotion. Hints of Radiohead, the freedom of Robert Glasper, and the dreamy escapism of Jordan Rakei blend together seamlessly. The trio stands at the crossroads of genres, somewhere between jazz, groove, and progressive music. Their third and fourth EPs form the two sides of their first album, Birds Whisper—an eclectic record that reflects their wide-ranging musical vision. The project features guest artists such as Matthieu Michel, NNAVY, Dado Moroni, and Chelsea Reject. It's on stage that ELÆNA explores their musical palette most fully, improvising around their compositions, as they do each year during their residency at the Caveau des Vignerons for the Cully Jazz Festival.

Supported by:

- Swiss Rising Talents of the Montreux Jazz Artists Foundation (2021)
- Proxima at Les Docks (2022), where they collaborated with major figures of the Swiss music scene such as Christophe Calpini, Marcello Giuliani, and Raphaël Noir.

ELÆNA

BIRDS WHISPER - ALBUM

30.10.2024

Dive into the airy, enchanting world of their new album Birds Whisper. Ethereal melodies blend with organic rhythms, creating an atmosphere that is both intimate and expansive. The sounds of birds echo throughout the album like an inner voice, inviting the listener to explore their own contradictions. Birds Whisper is a musical journey filled with freedom and poetry.
